Re: Public Records Act Request – Use of Force/Complaints Data (Clovis Police Department)

Dear Samuel Sinyangwe:

As indicated in our prior correspondence, the City of Clovis (“Clovis”) is in receipt of your California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) request received on January 30, 2019 (“Records Request”) related to public records on police use of force and complaints data.

We previously informed you that Clovis would make all reasonable efforts to provide you with responsive, non-exempt records in a manner consistent with the CPRA by February 25, 2019. The City is still gathering the records responsive to your request and will make reasonable efforts to provide you with responsive, non-exempt records by no later than March 25, 2019. We will notify you if this is not possible. Additionally, prior to that date we will notify you of the exact cost for the documents.

Please note that notwithstanding the foregoing, the following documents shall not be made available to you because they are exempt from disclosure under the CPRA:

- Records that are protected under the attorney-client privilege. (Gov. Code, § 6254, subd. (k); Evid. Code, §§ 952 and 954; Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6068.);
- Records that are protected under the attorney work product privilege. (Gov. Code, § 6254, subd. (k); Evid. Code, § 915; CCP, § 2018.030; Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6068.);
- Records or information exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code section 6254.3, including but is not limited to a public agency employees’ home addresses, home telephone numbers, personal cellular telephone numbers, and personal email addresses. (Gov. Code, §§ 6254.3 6255; City of San Jose et al. v. Superior Court (2017) 2 Cal.5th 608.);

- Personnel information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (Gov. Code, § 6254, subds. (c) and (k); Cal. Const., art. I, § 1; Marken v. Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District, (2012) 202 Cal.App.4th 1250.);
- Documents or information where on balance the public interest served by not disclosing the record clearly outweighs the public interest served by disclosure of the record. (Gov. Code, § 6255, subd. (a).);
- Records which are exempt from disclosure pursuant to federal and state law mandating their confidentiality. (Gov. Code § 6254 subds. (c) and (k).)

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

LOZANO SMITH
